Does your institution effectively engage today's students?

Adapt to a Rapidly Changing Market

Campus Management is dedicated to helping colleges and universities transform in response to an ever-evolving higher education landscape. Today, students have more choices than ever in deciding which institution will best help them achieve their academic and career goals. At the same time, schools are facing increased enrollment challenges in the face of this competition. To succeed, you need to recruit and engage a broader spectrum of constituents and keep students on the path to graduation.

Now there is a powerful solution to help you transform in this new world, one that provides a comprehensive view of each constituent, and helps you achieve goals for recruitment, retention, student outcomes, and alumni relations. That solution is CampusNexus[®] CRM.

Improve Admissions Process

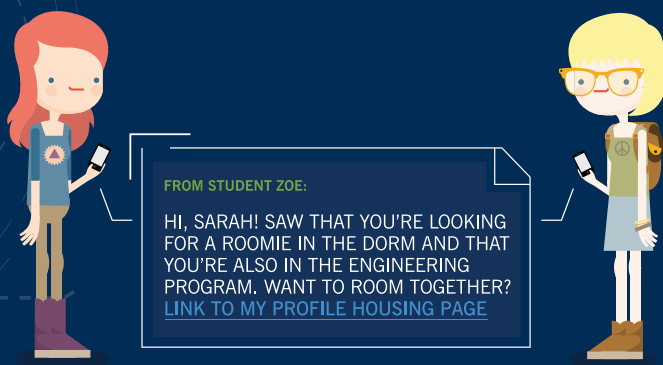

CampusNexus CRM includes an admissions process based on higher-education best practices, which helps improve your recruiting results and maximize yield. You can use this feature out of the box or adapt it to your own admissions model. This allows you to identify the best prospects and create compelling, personalized, and targeted messages to boost the reach and impact of your admissions strategy.

Increase Student Success

CampusNexus CRM aggregates data from multiple systems and departments, providing a powerful retention tool and early-warning system for identifying and assisting at-risk students. What's more, you can actively campaign to students who are succeeding and demonstrating positive behaviors to reinforce, recognize, and reward them accordingly.

Keep Alumni Engaged

Whether your alumni are donating to your institution, providing a career path for recent graduates, supporting recruitment efforts, or returning to school for additional training and education, CampusNexus CRM helps you keep them connected to your institution.

3

Foster collaboration and socialization among students.

4

Recognize issues and intervene early to keep students progressing toward their goals.
