TRANSFORM AS HIGHER EDUCATION EVOLVES

More institutions are competing for fewer students. Budgets are shrinking. Financial aid eligibility is being tied more to student outcomes. And those students? They are digital natives, traditional and nontraditional students alike seeking greater flexibility in fulfilling their goals. This generation of students expects institutions to provide education as a service. They need programs that fit their busy lives, rather than ones fixed to the traditional academic calendar. Now you can transform your institution to serve the needs of students today and tomorrow with a proven and highly adaptable student information system, CampusNexus® Student.

MAXIMIZE STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

With CampusNexus Student from Campus Management, you engage prospects and current students with a system designed for their success and yours. The solution enables flexible term structures supported by automated financial aid and billing adjustments, helping your administrators and staff stay focused on your students.
